An exciting School to School opportunity led by Sudbury Primary School an OLEVI Accredited School

The Outstanding Teacher Programme offers intensive practical and interactive training to empower teachers with the skills, knowledge and confidence to succeed. It is a ten week programme delivered through face-to face taught sessions, classroom observations within the host school and 2 half day in-school practice sessions at the participant's school. It is therefore important that a minimum of 2 delegates (ideally 3) from the same school attend.

Intended outcomes

- To develop the outstanding potential of each teacher.
- To enable the teacher to deliver more.
- To develop their coaching and mentoring skills to enable them to develop and share their outstanding practice with others
